About Sender One

Founded in 2013, Sender One Climbing, Yoga, and Fitness is Southern California's premier indoor climbing destination, and home to Sender City, our interactive climbing area where families come together to encourage and cheer each other on as they scale the walls, jump off trembling towers, and slide into fun! Through our extensive youth program offerings, Sender City sessions and parties, or open climbing in the main gym, Sender One offers fun for everyone!

At Sender One we center ourselves, and our business, around 5 core values:

SHARE YOUR PASSIONS

Everyone has a passion; something that brings them joy -- for us, it is rock climbing! We encourage everyone to share their passions with others, and spread the love and joy they experience through their favorite activities.

FIND CREATIVE BETA

When you're feeling stuck, harness your imagination by finding novel and interesting approaches to everyday responsibilities, as well as larger challenges.

LEARN FROM YOUR PROJECTS AND SEND THEM

Not everything will work out on the first try; we strive to learn and grow from each task, challenge, and interaction, and follow our projects through to the end.

SEE THE WORLD FROM OTHER PEOPLE'S PERSPECTIVES

Treat others as they would want to be treated by conscientiously putting yourself in their shoes, and work with others to help them understand your point of view.

CLIMB TOGETHER

Everyday, we work together, support one another, share ideas, and build trust, and encourage everyone to do the same.

We are passionate about providing endless experiences for families to discover and connect through the enjoyment and challenge of climbing!
